Upper School Artists Honored

12/14/2017

Three Upper School painting/drawing students, taught by Lauren Cunningham, were recently honored for their artworks at the Trinity Arts Guild Youth Show, a competitive local art show that attracts young artists from all over the metroplex.

Isabel Garza '21 earned an Honorable Mention for her painting, Window into a Life; Peri Huling '19 was honored with the President's Award for her print, Luna Moth; and Xitlali Castaneda '19 earned Second Place for her painting, Lipstick on the Glass.

The Trinity Arts Guild was formed in 1961 to help both professional and amateur artists explore, develop and expand their creative talents. The guild's purpose is to advance the cultural environment of the metroplex by making and displaying fine and applied arts. It accomplishes this through a program of encouragement and instruction for people of all ages and through the display and promotion of member works in their gallery and at area public forums. The youth art competition, scholarships and instructional programs further ensure that cultural growth continues into the future.
